The owner of a vineyard hired people to work for him at various times during the day. At the end of the day, he paid them all the same wage. God's love is like that. It does not matter how long we work for Him, God will give us all the same reward - eternal life with Him. Pray the 'Our Father' with our children, focusing on the words 'we' and 'our' to foster the understanding that we are all God's family.

Father Raymond is putting a call out to any Bakers, volunteers, parishioners who would like to get involved in a bake sale committee to continue this awesome fundraiser starting in September.

Please contact the parish office if you are interested in volunteering, or would like more information please contact the parish office.

ALPHA REMINDER!

We hope you have been praying hard for the people you would like to see discover or enhance their relationship with Jesus Christ, our Lord. Alpha offers that opportunity! Remember to invite your friends to the Alpha program. It's helpful if you offer to come with them, if you can. We are all called to evangelize! Please contact the parish office for more information. 705-674-6447

ALPHA BEGINS SEPTEMBER 16TH!

6:00 PM - MEMORIAL HALL

EVERYONE WELCOME!!!!

Reflection: What can the concepts of work and wages, welfare and the unemployed tell us about the kingdom of God? The gospel reminds us that the Kingdom of God doesn't work in such a way that the first believers or followers of Christ will be rewarded more, but all will receive the reward of grace from God. We have a generous God. He is equal to all despite the circumstances or differences of the persons just like in the parable story. People thought that they were discriminated against and judged not equally. God works in mysterious ways. We tend to compare ourselves with the people around us but that kind of thinking should be eradicated for we should be grateful for the success of others. Let us pray that all people in the world should uplift one another instead of bringing each other down; just so we can value more from it. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2026'
